

As an educator, I have always had to think of my teaching as a message to a future I will not see. This bill is predicated on the same idea for many of us. Future generations will look back at our actions on this and thank us. Please support this crucial bill.