

I know the state is looking for tax money but please do not take away the interest deduction as we have figured that into the purchase to support the loan with the rent. Please look to other ways to raise money.