

Apologies mean little or nothing. Picking one person of racial heritage, as if they were the only one singled out is misleading. Our justice system including Judicial Fitness and The Oregon State Bar are very corrupt. Many have suffered because they fail to enforce our laws.

What would bring some measure of real consideration to those damaged would be to fix the system. Shouldn't the bar be a organization to protect the public? It's not. It's protecting lawyers who pay them. There is no agency protecting the public.

This bill is really stupid on every count. Your not honoring this man by apologizing. You would honor him by fixing the problem.
