

I am a teacher. We practice Lock Down drills quite regularly. If we were in a real Lock Down, and a fellow teacher who was sympathetic with the perpetrator opened the door to the school and allowed them in, I hope they would be prosecuted. How is the breach that Mike Nearman created while colluding with his armed, psychotic fellow Republicans any different? It isn't. Fire and prosecute him.