

Mr. Nearman has not only engaged in disorderly behavior, he has disregarded his oath of office and deliberately put his colleagues at risk to push his own political agenda. His actions were premeditated and he has shown no remorse. He must be removed from office if he does not resign.