

I believe all ballots should be received by Election Day. If not we should have in person voting to insure a timely election.