

I believe all ballots should be received by Election Day or require in person voting.