

It is unacceptable that a representative of a Democratic country allows and advocated for insurrection and a third-world style coup. This is criminal behavior and accountability is needed. This is not a person who represents the people.