

This bill is a win/win. Improving the health of low income residents helps us all. Besides health benefits it improves the economy by providing jobs, and lowers energy costs.