

Rep. Nearman's behavior was nothing short of treasonous. For conspiring to expose his colleagues to threatening extremists, and for facilitating their entry into the capitol building, he deserves to be expelled. He is not fit for office. He's irreparably broken our trust. His continued access to our government is unacceptable.