

There is no proof that the door was even locked and if it was it was locked it was illegally locked . The one person who was upholding their oath is being persecuted . This is wrong