

The People's house should be open to the people, the Legislation was not disrupted, this is a clear case of protest and frustration denying people having a chance to have the floor, and have their voice heard.