

I am against the extension of moratorium. As a property owner and landlord, I can't afford to extend any further. It also puts tenants in a bad place if being in arrears for so far out. It forces me into a position to reconsider being a landlord. What kind of an impact would this have on our housing situation if the number of good landlords are taken out of the pool?