

I ALSO OPPOSE THE AMENDED BILL

This is a lottery scheme for middle income potential homeowners. This isn't an affordable housing project. The application of public policy isn't equitable.

Application fees may make up for a portion of lost income for a county. As counties approve exemptions, it reduces their already deficient budget in rural counties. Rural counties need income producers.