

I own a paddle board and can walk outside my door to use it. That is until the big wakes come along. Boating used to occur and not bother anyone. Now the wakes ride across the river and mess up the river for everyone. It's downright dangerous. You need to fix it before something bad happens!