

ALL of the Willamette River should be open to all types of motor boats. I live on the Willamette River and waves from boats is NOT eroding the river. Winter flooding has a much larger affect. Boaters have to pay licensing fees, take tests, and support the community. Taking our public waters away from them is a huge misuse of government power and very much an overreach. KEEP THE WILLAMETTE OPEN!!!