

This bill is so important to our quality of life, property values, recreational use of our river for most all of us, safety, and our fragile riverfront environment, I totally support his bill.