

To Whom it May Concern,

Having culturally appropriate providers is crucial to the success, health and overall wellbeing of Deaf, DeafBlind and hard of hearing Oregonians. Direct service providers who can sign or the use of ASL interpreters for all behavioral health services is crucial.