

Predator reduction is needed to protect our game and non game animals as well as livestock in remote eastern Oregon