

These killing contests are barbaric, inhumane, and frankly despicable. Killing coyotes in this manner is not only a morally reprehensible act, but it actually goes against the findings of science with regards to coyote population control. Please stand up for wildlife and support HB 2728.