

I strongly disagree with this. These tournaments are an economic benefit on small towns across the state.