

You swore an oath to defend these principals. This is the social contract between government and the governed. To do otherwise is a clear violation of your oath.

Oregon State Constitution:

Bill of Rights:

Section 27. Right to bear arms; military subordinate to civil power. The people shall have the right to bear arms for the defence [sic] of themselves, and the State, but the Military shall be kept in strict subordination to the civil power[.]

United States Constitution:

Bill of Rights:

Second Amendment: A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed.

This legislation will limit the ability of the people to exercise there right to be able to bear arms.
