

I fully support legislation that requires a completed background check to purchase a firearm.