

I support raising the wages for my son's support staff!! We lose too many service providers due to moving on to higher-paying positions, even they are happy in their work. Change is very difficult for my son and losing a familiar person is traumatic. Thank you for your attention