

I receive services that let me live an independent life. My service providers are important to me and they often leave to accept higher-paying jobs. This bill would give me a better life. Thanks for your attention.