

I support this bill. Too many part time employees are piecing together a livable wage at one intuition, to then miss out on healthcare benefits.