

Medical insurance benefits are extremely important to all education faculty. I have helped my family immensely...we could not have afforded insurance or medical care without the district's available coverage, especially since we had a child with special needs.