

Background checks work. Using non-determination of, or failure to perform a background check in a timely manner, is denying a citizens right to due process. Ultimately this bill could be used as a way, based on a technicality, to circumvent the second amendment of the United States Constitution. HB2543 will set up costly litigation.