

With minimum wage and cost of doing business going up at an extreme rate, we need more money. We are not able to simply raise our prices like any other business is able to do. We need our compensation rate to be increased.
Thank you for your time.