

The rising cost of minimum wage along with the additional staffing required to meet the current needs of customers has increased store expenses for my business. These additional funds are much needed to help us continue to adequately staff our stores. Thanks