

We need common sense laws to make sure people are responsible when they purchase guns. This is one step to making everyone safer!