

As the law now stands, a merchant can sell a gun to a customer if the results of their background check isn't completed within three days. This makes no sense. One should have to wait for approval to own a firearm before the merchant can make the sale. Please support this bill! Thank you, Julia Ingram