

Giving municipalities, college campuses and other governmental bodies the ability to decide whether their safety is better protected by not allowing weapons in their facilities goes along with the idea of local control. The idea that concealed weapons can be carried into parts of airports, the capital building and schools is frightening and actually increases the risk of gun violence. For the protection of my grandchildren, I urge you to pass this legislation.