

If the state needs a little extra time to determine whether someone would be a safe and responsible gun owner , they should have it. It makes no sense that there is this arbitrary and too fast limit to the process. Oregon should have the time it needs to make sure we'll all be safe.