

It makes no sense to demand people use toxics to control "weeds" on their property that have been proven to cause harm to people, pollinators, birds, animals and water. This is the least that we can do to help us get off of the use of poisons. I would love to see a bill banning them altogether. This is a baby step that must be taken.