

Am against election day registration. Will allow people to register without proper verification of residency. It will allow for vote harvesting without thought of residency long term. Will allow people to move in for one day only for voting. Just saw the messes caused by last minute unverified and voter fraud. Why put things in place to further cause problems unless that is the goal. Vote NO.