

This bill would create a legal landmine where citizens could unknowingly violate a firearms restriction simply by passing through a community. If a community along a major highway, such as The Dalles where to invoke a firearms ban every person otherwise legally having a firearm in their vehicle would be committing a serious crime just by passing through.