

An equally misguided effort, the effect of which is rendered null and void by the foundation upon which its authority rests. The founding documents of this nation, expressly and purposefully, protect the rights of all citizens to own and utilize modern means for that purpose. Any enforcing such policies will be aiding those aligned against the interests of Americans (and certainly Oregonians).

Merely the latest, objective, evidence as to how unscientific and dangerously ignorant your thinking is...
https://link.theepochtimes.com/mkt_app/sheriff-3-dead-in-gun-store-shooting-in-new-orleans-suburb_3704665.html

One cannot simultaneously advocate for such harmful policies and have the best interests of their neighbors and community in mind, without either malignant intent, or gross ignorance.