

I am a teacher and college instructor at a community college in Oregon, and I would like to testify to the importance of limiting access to guns in the schools. Teachers already have to fear for their safety in this pandemic time; let's protect them. The second amendment was never meant to be applied as some gun advocates ask it to be. Let us not forget the common good.