

I am a law abiding citizen who believes in my second amendment right. This law will not protect any one from criminals as laws have no boundary. However, it will make it to where those who believe in following our laws and carrying concealed firearm, will not be able to protect ourselves or others from criminal's.