

Science makes our lives possible in so many ways. Geology is essential to wise road building and other civil engineering projects all the way to volcanic eruptions, plate tectonics, and the deep time history of our great state. We support science because it make sense. We have the life we have because of science. Geology keeps us safe. It saves our lives and our fortunes.