

Lives, dreams and businesses continue to be ruined daily. We have seen many states find a better balance that allows our restaurants and bars to stay open. There is no major contribution to Covid increases from restaurants and bars following basic safety measures. We CANNOT continue to shut down restaurants or bars again during this pandemic, and it should not happen this way again. Dean