

As a small business owner I have experienced the destruction of my lovely good by these draconian closure measures. Further I have witnessed the destruction of friends businesses and livelihood. Coming from an EMS background and researching this epidemic in regards to past epidemics I have personally experienced, I see no reason for such drastic closure measures. Thank you for this opportunity to speak.