

It's no secret that the judicial system sometimes fails, and innocent people end up incarcerated. Others end up imprisoned when what they need most is rehabilitation. Regardless of the reasons for being jailed, I believe prisoners should maintain the right to vote.