

Dear Committee Members:

Since shelter is a basic need but housing is an industry, allowing business owners to take away any customers' basic need without TRIAL denies residents' rights to Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness. That the concerned business owners might be endangered also, further justifies Trial on removing anyone's rights in disputes regarding such (a) basic need(s). Can a person be arrested without cause? At least then, the suspect receives the basic needs.