

The need for accessible charging stations throughout the state will only increase over time. This is an excellent approach to supporting both EV usage and enjoyment of Oregon's exceptional state parks.