

Concealed hand gun permits are given to law abiding citizens only after background checks determine if there is a criminal history. Stopping a licensed individual from his right to carry a concealed handgun for protection does nothing to stop the unlicensed individual from committing crimes. An individual with a desire to commit a crime will not be stopped by a senseless law aimed at the honest citizen. I oppose this bill.