

I am totally against this bill as it punishes law abiding citizens and strips them of their constitutional rights to keep and bear arms and protect themselves. Having different concealed carry rules for each jurisdiction would make it very easy for a law abiding citizen to get charged with a felony for breaking a law they were not even aware of.