

These restrictions must be stopped, Pings Restaurant in Albany can not open based on the 25% Covid rule. That would only allow 6 tables in this restaurant to be used whereas if it was social distancing they could afford to open. Family owned restaurants have been closed most of a year. They usually are the best in contrast with the big corporate chains. This restaurant has been here for at least 40 years, and the rules imposed make no sense.