

I very much in support this bill. There is a need for a more just, justice system. This is a good first step. It allows for the possibility of restorative justice programs.